Charge: Dale Bolinger

A nurse arrested after an FBI probe into an alleged cannibalism plot appeared in court yesterday.

Dale Bolinger, 57, formerly of Canterbury, Kent, was charged with 11 offences via video link at the town's magistrates court.

He was released on bail to appear at Canterbury Crown Court on November 25.

Kent Police said an investigation was launched earlier this year as a result of contact with FBI officers in the United States who were investigating offences of conspiracy to kidnap and murder by former New York police officer, Gilberto Valle.

Bolinger was arrested on February 21 on suspicion of committing conspiracy offences.

In September, he was charged with one count of attempting to administer poison to someone, two counts of possessing an indecent photograph of a child, one count of attempting to meet a girl under 16 following sexual grooming, and seven counts of publishing an obscene article.

The alleged offences occurred between 2010 and February 21 this year.
